Administrative History or Biographical Sketch

In November 1965, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bacon Segman established the Reston Times as a small 8 ½ x 11 monthly neighborhood newsletter. The Segmans typed and laid out the stapled 8-page paper in their basement, and had it printed at a local offset publishing plant. The following year, Arthur W. Arundel purchased the Reston Times in November 1966, for $4,500. At the time of its purchase, circulation consisted of 80 mail subscribers, 275 carrier subscribers, and 300+ newsstand sales. Arundel, who founded the Times Community Newspapers in 1962, moved the newspaper to leased offices in Lake Anne Plaza. In September 1968, the Reston Times started publishing semi-monthly, and two years later began weekly publication. On May 20, 1971, the newspaper printed its first broadsheet issue. In 1975, Arundel purchased the Gulf Reston Information Center Building and renamed it the Reston Times Building. The newspaper moved into its new headquarters in February 1976, doubling the Reston Times’ office space. In 2007, the name of the newspaper changed to the Fairfax County Times. In May 2009, Times Community News sold the Fairfax County Times to the Gazette, a division of The Washington Post Co.

From February through April 1994, Times Community Newspapers, publishers of the Reston Times, Herndon Times, and Vienna Times, purged their morgue files of excess photographs, negatives, and clippings. The Times donated the files to the Virginia Room for inclusion in the Photographic Archive of Fairfax County. The gift was made free of any use conditions, and all use rights were transferred to Fairfax County Public Library.
Scope and Content
The Reston Times Photograph Collection consists of 25 boxes of photographs and negatives covering the geographic area of Reston, Herndon, Chantilly, Centreville, Clifton, and Vienna, Virginia from the years 1971 through 1992. The files contain newspaper clippings, photographs, and approximately 200,000 35mm negatives. The photographs are arranged in subject order.

Series

Series 1: Subject Files, pre-1971–1973, Box 1
These files have been arranged by year and major subject groupings.

Series 2: Subject Files, 1975-1992, Boxes 2-9
These files are arranged in subject order and have largely been left in their original order.

Any articles or clippings about the individuals pictured here have been retained with the print.

Portraits in this series are grouped in files in rough alphabetical order. Any articles or clippings about the individuals pictured have been retained with the print.

Approximately 200,000 35mm negatives (mostly black and white). They are housed in polypropylene sleeves (as delivered by the Reston Times) and are arranged by date. There is no subject index to this series of the collection.
