New Book Recommendations for Babies and Toddlers (Birth-3)

Bumpety, Dunkety, Thumpety-Thump! by K. L. Going
Illustrations and onomatopoeic text capture a busy day in the life of two young siblings as they pick berries, help make a pie and "thumpety-thump" their way to bed. Themes: Siblings, Bedtime

Bye-Bye Binky by Maria Van Lieshout
A little girl explains that she does not need a pacifier anymore, because she is a big kid now. Themes: Pacifiers, Growing Up

Everything is Mama by Jimmy Fallon
A lot of babies' first words were Dada. However, everything after that was Mama. Readers take a look from a baby's point of view as different animals try to teach their children that there are other words in addition to Mama for familiar objects and activities. Themes: Language, Mother and Child

Hop Up! Wiggle Over! by Elizabeth Honey
Illustrations and simple, onomatopoeic text capture a busy day in the life of a large and diverse family of Australian animals. Theme: Words for Sounds

One Lonely Fish: A Counting Book With a Bite! by Andy Mansfield
Turn the page to see a new fish on each spread and count along as each fish prepares to eat the one before it. Theme: Counting

Ten Little Toes, Two Small Feet by Kristy Dempsey
Toddlers crawl, play and walk as they help the reader learn to count to ten. Theme: Counting

Wake Up! by Helen Frost
Simple poetic language and close-up photographs invite readers to explore all the baby animals who are born during spring. Themes: Spring, Baby Animals

Board books are another way to enhance your baby and toddler’s early literacy experience. Find many, like this one, at your neighborhood library branch.

This document lists books published in the last several years. Find these titles and many other stories at your neighborhood library branch.