What's New in Children's Picture Books?
October/November 2018

Reading Tip: When you read aloud, get excited and model the fun of reading and playing with language. Don’t be afraid to act silly! Children will love it and will beg you to read a story again and again.

New Book Recommendations for Babies and Toddlers (Birth–3)

All Kinds of Friends by Shelley Rotner
Photographs and simple text explore the many kinds of friends children have in their lives.
Theme: Friendship

Every Color Soup by Jorey Hurley
Describes how to make a colorful, delicious vegetable soup. Includes recipe.
Themes: Colors, Cooking, Soup

Goodbye Autumn, Hello Winter by Kenard Pak
In a simple, cheerful conversation with nature, two young children witness how the season changes from autumn to winter.
Themes: Seasons, Fall, Winter, Nature

Little One by Emily McDermott
Little One is the story of a mother’s joy and love as she anticipates her son’s arrival.
Theme: Mother and Child

Stanley’s Diner by William Bee
It is another busy day at the diner as Stanley cooks, prepares for a special event, cleans up and goes home. Themes: Diners, Restaurants

Truck, Truck, Goose! by Tammi Sauer
Goose is all packed for a picnic. Now all he has to do is cross the little road in front of his cottage.
Themes: Traffic Safety, Play

Up!: How Families Around the World Carry Their Little Ones by Susan Hughes
Around the world, little ones are carried in many different ways: in slings, on shoulders, in backpacks, on hips, in baskets and in loving arms.
Theme: Infants

Where is Bear? by Jonathan Bentley
A little boy and his best friend—an actual bear—go on a search for a teddy bear before bedtime.
Themes: Bedtime, Bears, Hiding

Where, Oh Where is Baby Bear? by Ashley Wolff
When Mama and Baby Bear go out to look for food one night, curious Baby Bear wants to wander and explore. Each time his Mama Bear calls for him, Baby Bear turns up in a different place.
Themes: Bears, Hiding

This document lists books published in the last several years. Find these titles and many other stories at your neighborhood library branch.